This reflects our mutual understanding of the tax return preparation services we will perform for you.

We will prepare, using information you furnish to us, your 2023 individual Federal income tax return and any requested state income tax returns, and estimated tax payment vouchers for 2024, if required.

We do not undertake any responsibility to audit or otherwise verify any data you submit to us. We may, however, ask you to clarify any inconsistencies or other unusual items that come to our attention and to provide us with additional information. You are responsible for keeping the necessary records to substantiate your deductions, any business expenses, and business and personal use of any property.

Your returns are subject to examination by the Internal Revenue Service and state agencies. In the event of an examination, we will be available to represent you at our standard rates. We will advise you in accordance with our professional standards; however, all positions taken on your tax return are your responsibility, and any penalties assessed to you are you sold liability. We maintain a copy of your tax return and supporting information for a period of six years. Our copies may be destroyed after that time.

Payment for services is required when you pick up your tax return or when you receive the final return electronically. Fees not paid within 60 days are subject to a late charge of 1.5%per month (18% annum).

With respect to married couples, we acknowledge that any information the firm receives from one spouse that may impact the other spouse will be made known to both parties and, for that purpose, we waive requirements of confidentiality among ourselves and the firm.

I/we have provided complete and accurate information and understand this information will be used to prepare the current year tax return. I/we have provided ALL the information necessary for preparation of my tax return.

If the above confirms your understanding of our agreement to provide services to you, you must sign this engagement letter and return it to us. If you are married, both spouses need to sign and date the letter.
